Will Speed Up Berlin Aerial Supply Shuttle

U. S. and Britain Plan To Augment Aerial Supply
Service At Once

NEW RESTRICTIONS IMPOSED BY SOVIET

BERLIN, July 13.—(INS)—The United States and Britain disclosed plans today for a further stepping-up of the western allies' aerial supply shuttle to Berlin in defiance of Russia's continued economic blockade.

After it was revealed that the American Air Force is improving Tempelhof airfield to receive more planes daily, British Air Minister Sir Arthur Henderson announced that the British are ready for an all-out attempt to fly coal into Berlin.

Sir Arthur said the British goal is to fly in sufficient quantities of the fuel to maintain normal public utilities in the western sectors of Berlin. The needs are estimated at 2,000 tons of coal daily.

Study Use Of Gliders

The air minister said: "All aerial transport possibilities will be studied, including the use of gliders."

Sir Arthur hedged on the question of whether the British are planning any aerial reinforcement of their troops in Berlin.

He said merely: "Planes will be used to supply food and coal to the German population."

He added that the British air lift will be "continued and increased as long as the blockade is maintained."

New Russian Restrictions

The Joint American and British steps to increase aerial deliveries followed a new Russian order further restricting Berlin travel.

The Sovietists cancelled all German automobile passes from the city into Soviet-occupied eastern Germany.

Expectations are that the Russians will issue new passes permitting only a selected few commercial vehicles to journey from the Soviet sector of Berlin into the eastern zone.

The latest move in the Soviet economic blockade is seen as a step to prevent any possibility of travel from the western sectors, through the Russian sectors and on the east.

The United States went ahead meanwhile to circumvent the continued economic blockade of the western sectors through stepped-up aerial deliveries.

Pa Newc Observes

Large moth, colored gray, brown and red, was brought to The News yesterday by Robert and Ronald Reese, 16 and 11 years old, respectively. It was caught at 100 O'Brien Way.

Both the city parking lot on South Mercer street and the Dean Park section were mobbed for youngsters seeking lost coins on Monday. The two sections were sites of the Midway and Carnival the past week.

Another large contingent of humans headed for the Latin American fairgrounds on Monday. A portion of the bumper-travelled Route 422 on East Washington street, while the remainder was the by-pass on Taylor street.

Bert James Miller and son, of E.D. 4, while fishing near the Harbor bridge about a week ago, hooked the body of a pike which had been killed on the railroad tracks near by. Upon closer examination, the bird was found to be a pike.

Miners To Ask Withholding Of Injunction

By PHILLIPS J. PECK
(U. S. A. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, July 13.—John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers Union will ask a Federal district court today to withhold an injunction against the eight-day-old "captive" coal mine strike.

The union is scheduled to file an answer to the petition of Robert N. Denham, general counsel for the National Labor Relations Board, for a court order to end the walkout of 40,000 miners in steel company-owned pits.

Federal Judge T. Alan Goldsborough will hear oral arguments on the case tomorrow.

The possibility remained of another meeting between union and company representatives to try for an 11th hour compromise on the controversial union shop issue which provoked the strike.

Federal Mediation Service officials closely watched the dispute, ready to intervene if such action would help bring an out-of-court settlement.

Judge Goldsborough reportedly urged such an agreement in a conference with the parties last Friday.

State Delegation Is Not Decided

Choice For Vice Presidential Nomination Is Yet

PHILADELPHIA, July 13.—(INS)—Pennsylvania's 82 delegates to the Democratic national convention remained undecided today as to their choice for the party's vice presidential nomination.

Among those favored by the delegates, who have a total of 74 votes, were Sen. Alben W. Barkley, of Kentucky; former Ambassador to the Philippines Paul V. McNutt, and Secretary of State George C. Marshall.

Delegation Chairman John S. Rice declared that he favored Marshall personally but understood that the general is not available. He also endorsed Barkley and McNutt, but added:

"I suppose, in the long run, the President's word will carry weight on the second spot. It always has in the past."

Albert M. Greenfield, Philadelphia realtor who was instrumental in bringing the convention to the Quaker City, said he liked Sen. J. Howard McGrath, party chairman; Wilson Wyatt, of Kentucky; and Sen. Francis J. Myers of Pennsylvania as vice-presidential possibilities in addition to Barkley and McNutt.

Mayor David Lawrence of Pittsburgh and Myers reportedly back Barkley, while National Committeewoman Mrs. Emma Guffey Miller favors Sen. Joseph C. O'Mahoney, of Wyoming.

Small Apple Crop Is Forecast For County

"I don't expect to have more than 10 or 15% of my apple crop this year," stated M. M. Ingham, fruit grower who lives on the Graceland road.

He stated that there were very few apples, and practically none of some kinds. Mr. Ingham said that he had no Baldwin at all, and he didn't think anyone else did.

Good Peach Crop

A good peach crop is anticipated, and the usual pear crop is expected. Plums will not be too abundant, according to Mr. Ingham, but a good harvest of grapes is expected.

J. Audley Boak, R.D. 4, whose large fruit crop is apples, also stated that he only expected about 10 to 15% of his winter apple crop. He said, however, that the crop of summer apples is normal.

W. Carl Hileman, fruit grower on the New Wilmington road, reports a better crop prospect than some other local growers.

"At present I expect about 40% of my regular apple crop," said Mr. Hileman. He too, stated that the peach crop would be large this year.

Grapes and plums also will produce a good crop this year, reported Mr. Hileman.

Mr. Hileman further stated that he thought the general apple crop was about one third of what it should have been.

Bernadotte For Intervention In Palestine War

United Nations Warned That Prompt Action Is Needed To Halt War

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., July 13.—(INS)—Count Folke Bernadotte warned the United Nations today that only prompt and effective intervention by the Security Council will bring about a decision in the Holy Land war.

The U. N. mediator, in an official Palestine report, told the 11-nation body that it had a choice of two courses of action.

1. To stop the Arab states from employing force, in which case a Jewish state would remain in existence.

2. For not to take action, leaving the issue to be settled on the field of battle.

Bernadotte will elaborate further on his report when the Security Council meets. He plans to make a number of recommendations for settlement of the Palestine war.

The Swedish nobleman, after conferring with representatives of U. S., Britain, France and China, handed copies of the official report to the Security Council delegates and asked that they study it for speedy progress at the council table.

FALSE ALARM

Firemen were called to Smith Brothers store on South Croton avenue at 6:15 p. m. Monday when someone noticed smoke curling about the roof. Firemen found the smoke came from some straw which was being burned in the furnace. Three fire companies were called to the scene by an alarm from box 43.

Embezzlement Of $630,000 Admitted

NEWARK, N. J., July 13.—(INS)—State Banking Commissioner John J. Dickerson announced today that Family Court Judge P. James Pelliccia Jr. has confessed embezzling $630,000 from the Columbus Trust Co. of Newark.

Dickerson said that Pelliccia confessed that he "lost all the money gambling on the horses" over a period of 2½ years while vice president and counsel for the bank.

County Prosecutor Duane E. Minard said that Pelliccia, who was taken into custody late last night, readily admitted the peculations when he returned from a week end at the beach yesterday and found bank examiners going over the institution's books.

Pelliccia, who was picked as one of America's ten best dressed men last year, is a bachelor, rated "the most eligible" in northern New Jersey where he is widely known.

Predict Barkley To Be Nominated

PHILADELPHIA, July 13.—(INS)—Senate colleagues of Sen. Alben Barkley (D-Ky.), early today, attended a "social—no politics" supper honoring the Kentucky lawmaker and came away flatly predicting his nomination as vice president.

Cautious Leslie Biffie, Senate minority secretary and Capital Hill confidante of President Truman, told newsmen:

"I think it's a cinch. It's all over now."

Biffie referred to the ovation which Barkley received in Convention Hall after his keynote address.

Bomb Attack On Tel Aviv Cause Of Heavy Damage

Arab Planes In Big Aerial
Attack On Israeli Capital Today

LIGHT RAIDS MADE
PRIOR TO BIG ATTACK

By BENN FELLER
(U. S. A. Staff Correspondent)

TEL AVIV, July 13.—The Israeli capital of Tel Aviv suffered widespread damage today when it was subjected to a heavy aerial bombing by Arab planes.

The damaging onslaught from the sky came at 11:30 a. m. after Tel Aviv had undergone two earlier light raids.

Israeli ships off shore opened up their guns against the attacking planes along with the regular anti-aircraft batteries in the city.

Explosions rocked various parts of the city.

Although there were no immediate reports of casualties it was feared that the bombs had taken some toll of residents in view of the damage.

Chambersburg Fire Causes $300,000 Loss

Five Persons Injured In Explosion
And Fire In Eastern Pennsylvania

CHAMBERSBURG, Pa., July 13.—(INS)—Firemen today estimated damage at $300,000 following an explosion and fire in two Chambersburg business places which injured five persons, one critically.

Firemen reported a tire service building and an implement company were gutted in the fast spreading fire which followed the blast.

Mrs. Helen Wolfert, 40, office manager of the tire company, was removed to Chambersburg hospital in critical condition with a skull fracture and multiple head cuts.

Two other employees, Cleason Shatzler, 27, and Robert Walters, 30, were hurled through a plate glass window by the force of the blast but escaped serious injury.

Two firemen sustained slight injuries fighting the blaze.

Charles Pryor, manager of the tire company, blamed the explosion on gasoline fumes resulting from a leak in a fuel storage tank in the basement.

He said that the explosion occurred at 10:30 p. m. (Continued on Page Two)

Barkley Assails Republicans In Keynote Attack

By JAMES LEE
(U. S. A. Staff Correspondent)

PHILADELPHIA, July 13.—Sen. Alben W. Barkley of Kentucky, the Democratic keynoter, left his party without a victory prediction today but with a prophecy of "blasted hopes of peoples everywhere" if the Republicans prevail next November.

Barkley, now a front-runner for the vice presidential nomination, told delegates to the Democratic convention in a 70-minute attack last night on the GOP and all its works.

"We shall not follow the example, so egotistically set by our opponents from this rostrum three short weeks ago, by announcing the result of the contest four months in advance."

The 70-year-old Kentuckian, for 16 years a leading engineer of the New Deal and often the congressional alter ego of the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt, expressed "humble but profound" hope that the Democrats will be returned to power for a fifth successive reign.

Denouncing Everything G.O.P.

Barkley devoted most of his address to a bitter denunciation of the Republican ticket, the Republican platform, and the GOP-controlled 50th Congress.

He accused Joseph R. Grundy, Pennsylvania Republican leader, of manipulating the nomination of Gov. Thomas E. Dewey.

He called the Republican platform, in one breath, a mere imitation of the New Deal philosophy.

Dixie Revolt May Put Fourth Party Into Race In Fall

By WILLIAM K. HUTCHINSON
(U. S. A. Staff Correspondent)

PHILADELPHIA, July 13.—Its Truman and Barkley in the Democratic convention today as the Dixie revolt threatens to project a fourth party into November's race for the White House.

President Truman's first ballot nomination is assured despite the devastating attack of twelve southern delegations against his civil rights program. Members of nine delegations plan to walkout of the convention as soon as Truman is nominated.

Senator Alben W. Barkley, of Kentucky, is the convention's choice for the vice presidential nomination.

Barkley is acceptable to the president.

Democratic National Chairman J. Howard McGrath announced that he had direct word from the White House that the president would be "most happy" to have Barkley as his running-mate.

Before McGrath spoke, it was apparent that Barkley could win unless the president directly opposed him. Most of the big states were in Barkley's corner and the Kentuckian also had sweeping support in the south and west.

The veteran senator scored a smash hit as "keynoter" of the convention last night. He drew frequent applause by attacks on the GOP and a 27-minute ovation when he concluded. After that demonstration it was easy to note that he was the convention's choice.

Early today, the president reportedly telephoned Barkley urging him to accept second place on the Truman ticket. Barkley said he would accept.

Now In Approving

The president was slow in approving Barkley. Some of his advisers desired a younger man, rather than the 70-year-old Kentuckian. But Barkley gained the support of New York, Illinois, Pennsylvania, Michigan, and a score of other delegations.

Mr. Truman, already in the throes of a serious southern revolt, was faced with a second convention.

The platform will be up for adoption Tuesday night and Alabama, plus Texas, South Carolina, and a few other southern states are planning to raise the "rebel yell" on the Tidelands oil plank.

What they do to the Tidelands oil plank will be merely spring training for the nomination for a presidential candidate. Alabama will split down the middle on Richard Russell of Georgia and Governor Ben L. M. of Arkansas. But Alabama will not vote for Harry S. Truman. Following Alabama's example will be Texas, Arkansas, Mississippi, South Carolina, part of Virginia, Tennessee and Florida. Not only will they not vote for Truman but they will walk out of the convention. This on the authority of an Alabama publisher who is a press box neighbor.

Will Not Finish Wednesday

The possibility of telecasting the program to finish by Wednesday night seems to have been side-tracked.

tion battle over his running-mate if he turned down the Kentuckian. Faced with this fact, he gave the "green light" to Barkley's nomination.

Will Not Walk Revolt

Choice of Barkley may help Mr. Truman in the coming campaign in many of the southern states but it will not affect the Dixie revolt against his civil rights program.

Nine southern delegations will fight him throughout this convention, with many of their members walking out after Truman wins.

Revolt leaders say from 80 to 140 delegates will join the anti-Truman exodus.

New Mill Pricing Plan Of U. S. Steel Goes Into Effect

PITTSBURGH, July 13.—(INS)—The new F.O.B. mill pricing plan of two U. S. Steel Corp. subsidiaries—Carnegie-Illinois Corp. and the National Tube Co.—went into effect today.

At the same time, National Steel Corp., parent company of Weirton Steel Co., announced that it also would adopt the new plan.

The plan will mean higher freight costs for many customers, though the actual price of carload lots of steel products will remain the same as they were under the former price list.

Previously, the steel companies shipping to distant customers equalized the cost of steel by absorbing freight costs into the quoted price.

The U. S. supreme court has ruled against such practices and now each purchaser must pay all freight costs.

DEATH RECORD

William E. Hanna, 77, Ambridge.

Arthur Monaster

You measure some pains in decimals, and two in a handful of spare, and two in all out for a time, with never a worry or care, give each a handful of money with instructions to spend it, but fast, and then you have a convention, and you know how long it will last. It will last till the delegates' purses are flattened and bent in and out, when it's over, there's plenty of headroom. It's 50 today.

Camp Meeting Will Open At Marshall Field On July 29

Speakers From Michigan And North Dakota Will Be Heard During Camp Period

Free Methodists of the New Castle district will open their annual camp meeting on July 29 at Marshall Field at Scott and Vine streets in the Croton section of the city and will continue in session until Sunday, August 8. This will be the second camp meeting held on the grounds, with the first meeting taking place last year.

Speakers chosen for the period include Rev. M. E. Andrews of Michigan and Rev. W. C. Snell of North Dakota with a daily Bible school to be under the supervision of Miss Gladys Brown. A well organized youth program will be in progress daily with supervised play arranged for the children. Congregational and group singing will be in charge of William Jameson of Sharpsville.

The meetings again this year will be conducted in a temporary erect tabernacle. It is planned to erect a permanent block auditorium in the near future. Tents will be placed on the grounds with dormitories erected to care for those desiring to use them.

Only Main Roads Can Be Used At Indiantown Gap

HARRISBURG, July 13.—(INS)—Motorists were warned today by Adjutant General Frank A. Weber they must travel only on main roads through the Indiantown Gap military reservation to escape the artillery range area which will be under fire during the next six weeks.

The range is posted and persons crossing barricades will be subject to trespass penalties, he reported. He urged travelers to stick to Routes 343 and 443 on the reservation.

Organized reserves of the 70th Infantry Division are training at the Gap while five artillery battalions of the 29th Division of the Maryland-Virginia National Guard will begin summer operations July 25. They will be followed by the annual encampment of the Pennsylvania National Guard August 14-22.

Farley Declares Barkley Will Be Strong Candidate

CONVENTION HALL, PHILADELPHIA, July 13.—(INS)—James A. Farley declared today that Sen. Alben W. Barkley of Kentucky is the strongest man the Democratic party could have selected for the vice presidential nomination.

"Barkley can make the best fight of any one that could have been picked," said Farley. "The former Democratic National chairman—the man whom many said 'made' the late President Roosevelt, politically—was warm in his praise of Barkley, even going so far as to say he thought he is of 'good enough caliber to be president'."

"I urged President Roosevelt to take Barkley for vice-president in 1940," Farley told international news service. "I voted for Barkley for vice-president in 1944."

tracked. The hotels and business men of Philadelphia put up $200,000 to get this convention here and they want their "pound of flesh". It probably means that the convention will not close until Thursday night late.

The withdrawal of William O. Douglas as a possibility for the vice presidential nomination seems to have cut the last vestige of New Dealers from this convention. Truman will be nominated on the first ballot and Alben Barkley for vice president. The few remaining New Dealers seem to be on the outside looking in.

convention will hold one of their own in Birmingham Ala., next Saturday July 17. The Birmingham session threatens to end in organization of a new fourth party primarily in the south but ready at all times to branch out across the nation.

Aside from rebellious convention delegates, many prominent southern Democrats—who did not come to Philadelphia—are expected to attend the convention, the rebel states are Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Kentucky (despite Barkley), Mississippi, South Carolina, Tennessee and Texas. Virginia reportedly is on the fence.

The Louisiana and North Carolina delegations are loyal to Truman though opposed to his civil rights program.

The Russell adherents throughout the south will remain in the convention so they can participate in the vice presidential nomination. Some of them may later attend the fourth party conference.

May Be Averted CONVENTION HALL, PHILADELPHIA, July 13.—(INS)—The threatened walk-out of the Mississippi and other Dixie delegations apparently was averted today when leaders decided to remain in the convention to support Gov. Ben Laney for the presidential nomination.

The 51-year-old states' rights champion obtained Texas' fifty convention votes on the agreement that his candidacy would be conducted within the framework of the party. Virginia also may vote for him.

Gov. Fielding L. Wright, of Mississippi, said that if the Mississippians "take a walk," they'll wait until after the convention.

It appeared that the Arkansas governor, meanwhile, is gaining additional convention votes from southern states. Reports that the platform committee would put sharper teeth in the controversial civil rights plank and abolish the states' rights principle further irritated Dixie delegations.

A spokesman for the Louisiana delegates, who heretofore appeared aloof to the rebels, said the platform would determine largely how the Pelican State will cast its ballots.

Some of the exhibits of old time pictures in various windows of the city continued to attract sizeable crowds on Monday. Most traces of the Neagat celebration have disappeared though.

A dangerous, unsightly foundation of a former home on the 600 block of East Washington street, has been filled in by workmen. The gaping hole has been a menace for more than two years to small children of the East Side.

 Rehearsal for the wedding of Miss Theodora Weiss, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Weiss, R.D. 6, and John McGary, son of Lowery McGary, 711 Cumberland avenue will take place tonight, at 8 o'clock, at the Central Presbyterian church. Following the rehearsal, the bride party will be entertained in the home of Mrs. Frank L. Coen, Court street.

 The open church wedding will be tomorrow evening, July 14, at 7:30 p. m. at the Central Presbyterian church, with Dr. R. M. Patterson officiating.
 Miss Weiss has asked her sister, Miss Barbara Weiss to be maid of honor and William McGary will act as his brother's best man. Robert and Francis Pitzer will be the ushers.

RECENT JUNE BRIDE

FETED AT LUNCHEON

 Mrs. C. I. Wetmore of Edgewood, Pa., entertained at a luncheon in her home on Saturday, July 10, in honor of Mrs. S. Huston Rhoads, a bride and groom of recent date.
 The guests were members of a bridge club of which Mrs. Wetmore was a member while residing in New Castle.

 A delicious luncheon was served by the hostess at a beautifully appointed table. Mrs. Wetmore was aided by her daughter, Ann.

 The afternoon was spent playing bridge, with prizes going to Mrs.
 Rhoads and Mrs. R. M. McCartney.
 A beautiful gift was presented to the honored guest by the hostess.

PITTSBURGH GIRL

WEDS LOCAL MAN

 On Saturday evening, July 10, at 7:30 o'clock, in the Mt. Washington Presbyterian church, Miss Eleanor Jean Woods, daughter of Mrs. Walter Woods, 1213 Grandview avenue, Pittsburgh, became the bride of Albert Kelly, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kelly, East Brook-Neshannock Falls road, New Castle. Rev. D. K. McGarragh officiated at the single ring ceremony. It was an open church service.

 The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, James Conway, of Pittsburgh, was lovely in a gown of white chiffon lace over satin, which was fashioned with a wide berth. She wore a fingertip veil which fell from a coronet headdress of white satin and coral pearls. She carried a colonial bouquet of roses and wore a single strand of pearls gift of the groom, as her only jewelry.

 As maid of honor, Miss Betty Gratton of Pittsburgh, wore a gown of yellow satin with matching mitts and a sweetheart hat. She carried a colonial bouquet of roses.

 Bridesmaids, Misses Emma Hackket and Mary Neft wore green and orchid summer taffeta dresses, respectively. Both wore mitts and carried colonial bouquets.

 Charles Kelly, brother of the groom, served as best man. Dean Streeter, of Pittsburgh, and brother of the bride, William Woods were ushers.

 Miss Betty Evanson accompanied Miss Frances Neft, who sang,
 "Because," "I Love You Truly" and
 "The Lord's Prayer."

 Immediately following the ceremony, there was a congratulatory period in the church vestibule, which was followed by a reception for 150 guests at Cenosam hall.
 The prettily appointed bridal table was centered with a four-tier wedding cake. Mrs. William Hacket and Mrs. Joe Ryan, poured, while Mrs. Norman Swartz, Mrs. Joe Ryan and Mrs. Martha Neft were aids.

 Mr. and Mrs. Kelly left in their car for Atlantic City and other points of interest and upon their return will be at home in their newly furnished apartment on South Mercer street, New Castle.

 Attending the wedding from New Castle were Mr. and Mrs. Harry
 Kelly, Mr. and Mrs. James Shaffer,
 Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Reher, Mr.
 and Mrs. Earl White, Mr. and Mrs.
 Fred Slater, Mr. and Mrs. Sam
 Patterson, Mr. and Mrs. Walter
 Logan, Mr. and Mrs. Charles
 Krause, Harry Shaffer, Mrs. Cecil
 Logan and Mr. and Mrs. Vincent Hartzel.

HEMMING-HECKER

ENGAGEMENT TOLD

 Mrs. Matthew Hemming, of Gardner, announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Lillian Hemming, 2006 Brooklyn avenue, Erie, Pa., to Harold Hecker, also of Erie.

 Both are employed by the General Electric Company.
 There has been no date set for the wedding.

Clinton Lodge Picnic

 Members and their families of Rock Point L.O.O.F. No. 846, and Margaret Sevin Rebekah No. 228, of Clinton, held an all day picnic at East Palestine City Park on Saturday. Approximately 70 persons attended.

 A basket dinner, and supper in the evening were features of the day. Swimming and games for everyone provided entertainment during the afternoon.

 Oldest lady in attendance was Mrs. Carey Young, Clinton, and the oldest man was Riley Cearfoss, Koppel. Charla Rae Rouser of Beaver Falls was the youngest, at the age of 9 months.

 Former Residents'
SILVER ANNIVERSARY
 Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Martin,
 Dewey street, Dravosburg, Pa., former residents of this city celebrated their silver wedding anniversary with a gathering of relatives and friends at open house in their home, Sunday, July 11.
 The Martins were married in New Castle 25 years ago by Rev. D.
 P. Shaffer, of the Central Christian church. They have three children: Mrs. Roy Cosgrove, of Dravosburg; Miss Chrissie Martin and John, both at home.

 Open house was held all day
 Sunday with a picnic supper being served on the lawn that evening.
 The table was beautifully appointed in a color scheme of pink and white with a large wedding cake for the centerpiece.

 Relatives and friends, from here, who attended the celebration were:
 Mr. and Mrs. John Baynham and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Baynham, of the Youngstown road; Mrs. Mabel Hanna and Mrs. Kenneth Hanna, of New Bedford; Mr. and Mrs. James
 Book, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Book,
 Mrs. James Ray, and Jack Bayn-ham, all of New Castle.

Eighth Graders Who Passed Tests Listed By Syling

Rural Students Who Are Eligible
To Enter High School
Announced

Rural eighth grade students, who took the high school entrance examinations conducted by County Superintendent of Schools John C. Syling to determine their fitness to enter high school, and who were successful in passing the examination were listed today by Mr. Syling. These students will be eligible to enter high school in the fall.

For the most part, those who took the examination, were students in school districts which do not have a high school. However, some of the schools which do have high schools, require their students to take the examination also.

Part of the list of those who have successfully passed the required examination follows:

Big Beaver Township—Fred McKinney, Velma Hall, Raymond Billard, Jean Wimer, Clarence Woods, George Barach, George Boutley, LaVerna Swiggers, Mary Jane Vance, Esther Hall.

U. S. And Britain Settle War Claims

WASHINGTON, July 13.—(INS)

—The state department announced Monday the signing of two agreements finally settling all war claims between the United States and Great Britain.

The signing took place in the office of Secretary of State Marshall who signed for the United States. Sir Oliver Franks, the British ambassador, signed for Britain.

Earlier, tentative agreements had been signed covering the land lease account, reciprocal aid, surplus property and value of land lease transfers continued after V-J day.

CHOOSE NECKTIES MEN WILL LIKE TO WEAR

Although men have long seemed twice as critical of a necktie when they know a woman has chosen it, women continue to do most of the tie buying. Eighty per cent of all neckties sold today are selected by women.

It is not a difficulty for a woman to buy the kind of tie that her husband will like and at the same time, if necessary, influence his taste for the tie better. The main thing to remember is that his taste in ties cannot be changed overnight.

If a man wears ties that are conservative, he can be led up the scale toward bolder, brighter colors. If he is inclined to gaudy colors and designs, he can be led back down the scale from what is loud to balanced colors and better designs. But this must be done gradually. The secret is to choose the familiar colors and patterns, but with either most subdued or more color effects.

Most ties are printed in six background colors for each pattern. There are usually two reds, a maroon and a brighter red; two blues, a navy and a lighter blue, also brown and green. The colors applied on these backgrounds provide variety for the designs used.

With gray, a man can wear a tie of almost any color. With a brown suit, a brown with gray, or brown with blue are good choices. For blue suits, a yellow and blue or maroon and yellow are in good taste. Maroons can be worn with almost anything.

If a man is short and stout, a vertical design will help make him look slimmer and taller. Checked suits should not be worn with striped ties. Figure ties look best with plain color suits. With stripes, men should wear plain or small figured ties. Boldly striped knitted ties are good worn with tweeds.

The materials used for ties include silk, rayon, cotton, and wool. Ties should be cut on the bias. When buying a tie, stretch it out full length. If the narrow part seems to twist a bit to either side, it has not been cut on the true bias, and will not set well when tied. A tie which is fully lined will wear longer. Many ties are tipped only with a facing put in the large end of the tie. This does not improve the quality of an unlined tie. The average tie should measure 46 to 48 inches in length.

President John O. Huston Outlines
Rotary Program For Coming Year

John O. "Jack" Huston, president of New Castle Rotary took over the reins of office for the coming year at Monday's noon's luncheon meeting in The Castle-ton, when his plans for the coming year were outlined.

President Huston named the various committees who will have charge of the various club activities for the year, each of whom has been asked to give a report on their plans two weeks hence.

Queen Anne of England (1665-1714) originated the sweepstake idea for horse racing.

Change In Supervision Of Rural Programs

Supervision Of Agriculture And Home Economics Would Be Given Teachers Colleges

County Superintendent of the Schools John C. Sylling, Assistant Superintendent Roy F. Conway, and Vocational Agriculture Supervisor James C. Fink, are in Slippery Rock today, where a meeting is being held on the proposal to place the supervision of vocational agriculture, home economics, and industrial arts under the supervision of the Pennsylvania State Teachers College.

The administration of these programs would be placed under the administration of the president of the college in conjunction with the county superintendents, with an administrator and possibly an assistant at each college. The colleges would have supervision over the program in the counties under their jurisdiction.

Slippery Rock State Teachers College is one of three state schools where the program is to be tried out, it is stated. Thus the college would have supervision over these programs in Lawrence, Butler, Beaver, and Allegheny counties.

Solve Holdup Of New Castle Man And Theft Of Car

FARRELL, July 13 — Charles Haun, aged 38, of Farrell was accused of the daring holdup on June 9 of Ferret Burg, 486 East Washington street, of New Castle, stealing his car and bilfold. Haun was arrested Saturday in Farrell by Police Chief John Spentie and State police. He signed a confession of the crime.

Burg was in a Farrell restaurant and when he returned, Haun was hiding in the car. He forced Burg to drive to a road in the vicinity of West Middleboro, and after stealing his bilfold, drove off with the car which was later found in Pittsburgh.

YWCA Camp Eastbrook On Neshannock

Camp Eastbrook, on a hill overlooking the Neshannock creek, will be a jumble of youngsters, camping equipment and goodbyes next Saturday when parents come to claim their daughters at the end of the second period of camp. This camp, sponsored by the Young Women's Christian Association, is open to any child who is physically fit, and desires to attend. Camp season is composed of two week periods. The first period started on June 21, and the last will end on July 31. These periods are divided into age groups, with the younger girls going first. Their camping day begins at 7:30 o'clock, and ends at 8:30, 10 or 10:30, according to the age group. Flag raising, breakfast and general clean-up occupy the morning hours, followed by swimming, nature, and music classes.

After a big meal at noon, they have a rest period, followed by more swimming, sports, and handicraft classes. Evening entertainment varies, including all sorts of stunts.

Members of the staff at Camp Eastbrook are well trained. Miss Maxine Taylor is the camp program director. Other members of the staff are: Helen McQueen, swimming instructor; Jane Hurst, lifeguard; Marie Olson, music and dramatics; Victoria Gizzi, nature work; Edyth Martin, handicraft; Mrs. Lloyd McConnell, camp nurse.

THE WORLD AND THE MUD PUDDLES

eventually made it a necessity. Employment of hundreds of thousands in the motor industry created wealth among the workers, who in turn demanded other products of our inventiveness. The radio today is likewise regarded as a necessity and it won't be long now until the latest wrinkle in electric transmission not only of sound but of sight—television—will be assured.

The measure of civilization's progress is in the multiplication of human needs. The "last frontier" of our development has been reached theoretically many times, but somehow it always keeps receding. How far we are from that point at the present time is easily seen in the fact that even in our own country we have not yet come to the place where the supply is equal to the demand and we may safely say that the "last frontier" is so remote as to be indiscernible except to the eyes of the doubter and the incurable pessimist.

of flying in sacked coal which is being unloaded with post-office efficiency at Templehof airfield.

Particularly Significant

Of particular significance in connection with the preparatory aspects of the military air shuttle that the Soviets unwittingly called down upon themselves is the fact that the British now have begun to fly cargo planes from home bases in the United Kingdom to Berlin.

This means a return to the back-breaking, bonechilling days of "cross-channel" operations during the war and brings again into full stature the voice and figure of Winston Churchill and his unforgettable "so much by so few." It means that the Royal Air Force—one unit of British armed strength that has escaped unscathed from British retrenchment and economies—is renewing acquaintance with the old enemies that nature contributed so lavishly to Adolf Hitler's side from 1939 to 1945.

Fog, for example. And the twisting, tortuous gusts of unexpected wind that come reeling in from the North Sea, the Bay of Biscay and the savage Kattegat and Shetland of Scandinavia where fleets of armed ships met sudden death in ages past when flying wings were nothing more than wild dreams of imaginative men.

The Soviets, by their own threats and admissions, are trying to discourage this service of supply that the Allies are pouring in to the almost two and a half million Germans who are dependent upon them.

It is surely reasonable to assume that they regret their folly in opening up a training school that will be of inestimable value should ambition and aggression provoke a new war.

vorite story or make fascinating things with him, holding his attention away from the storm. (My bulletin "Fears" may be had in a stamped envelope) by writing me at 235 East 45th Street, New York, N. Y.)

We never observed pronounced fears for any prolonged period in our own children or grandchildren during an electric storm. Our daughter enjoyed electric storms until about the age of 14, when she saw the flagpole shattered by lightning near her classroom. Her brother always did. Some years later she said that she felt a bit uncomfortable during a thunder storm since the day that flagpole was struck. Her little daughter, when about three years old, clutched my arm while I was reading to her following a violent thunder clap, and for a few times thereafter showed slight uneasiness at heavy thundering. But on the following summer she taught her younger brother to shoot with glue every time there was loud thunder.

LOOKING AT LIFE

ular assertion more than eight or nine times.

I read about 20 papers and practically every column published. So I can authoritatively confirm the fact given to you by your own columnists that it was hot, indeed. Every one of them said so at least five or six times.

If you saw the convention on television you know that it was hot. As a matter of fact, from where I sat, that convention reminded me of nothing so much as of a visit I paid to the Chicago stockyards a few years ago on a hot July day. There were no speeches, of course, but as the cattle were being led to slaughter they let out some of the most ungodly noises I ever heard in my life.

But I do want to say one thing. I say it neither as a politician, which I am not, nor as a politician, which he is not and never was:

Herbert Hoover's speech was the one outstanding contribution to that Republican convention. It was the one speech that read as well as it sounded.

And now for the "Mortimer Snerd" convention. Know what I mean? (Copyright by King Features Syndicate, Inc.)

JOBS UPON A TIME

John Charles Thomas, when a boy, raised his voice in song at campfire religious meetings, as his father was a Methodist minister. His first choice of careers was medicine and Thomas enrolled in a medical school. Almost at the same time he won a scholarship in a conservatory of music. He flipped a coin and music won. Thomas made his New York debut in the Winter Garden Passing Show of 1913. His concert debut came in 1918, and in 1925 he went to Europe for study, scoring successes in London, Berlin, Vienna and Brussels before returning to the United States, the Metropolitan Opera Co. and radio.

Dagwood Bumstead, the blundering husband of Blondie of comic strip, movie and radio, Arthur Lake, made his debut as a babe in arms, being carried on the stage when he was two weeks old. From then on his roles were written to suit his age. At 13, Arthur, then living in Hollywood, made his first silent film appearance, and four years later he was featured in Air Circus, Arthur's first "talkie". His first Blondie movie was in 1938, and the radio series has been running since 1939. He has a wife and two children.

You may call it a "light" bill, but lighting's only a part of it. Actually, it's a monthly pay roll for the many electric helpers that make life easier for you.

Have you ever wondered what these helpers cost you to run? Here's a little test to see how good a guesser you are. Put down what you think it costs you to operate each electric appliance for one day.

Refrigerator Vacuum Cleaner Sewing Machine Water Heater Lights Stoves Washers Coffee Maker Range Iron and Ironer

Fan and Room Heater Dishwasher Waffle Iron Food Processor Oil Burner Stove and Heating Pads Sun Lamp Power Tools Grill

Add this daily total and multiply by 30 for your monthly total.

_____ a day x 30 days = _____

That's your guess. Compare it with your monthly electric bill. Most people over-estimate. That's because electricity does so much for so little! You're right. It's a very light bill!

Enthusiasm Lacking At Dem Convention

By RAY RICHARDS
(News Staff Correspondent)
PHILADELPHIA, Pa., July 12.—The feeling at this convention is entirely different than the republican convention. This convention has an air of confidence, a sense of impending victory. This one finds Democratic leaders promising "surprises" in November but quietly admitting they are in a bad way.

There is one Allegheny county Democrat here, Prothonotary David B. Roberts, who insists Truman is "in." Figure it this way," said Roberts, as he moved back a man sized helping of ham and eggs.

"Harding, Coolidge and Hoover were elected because times were good. People were not interested in making a change, they were interested in making money. Today employment is higher than it has ever been, money is free and people are eating regularly. An administration seldom gets tossed out in prosperous days."

After listening to Roberts talk a while it seemed to me that the theme song of the Democrats this year should be "I'm Looking at the World Through Rose Colored Glasses."

Former Senator Joseph F. Guffey is here looking rather peaked after a long illness. "They're selling Truman short now," said he, "but he is going to fool a lot of folks with his strength."

Guffey is beating the tubs for the nomination of Senator Joseph C. O'Mahoney of Wyoming for vice president.

"O'Mahoney is an ideal man for the vice presidential nomination," said Senator Guffey. "I'm for him until President Truman says he wants somebody else. In that event I'll string along with the president."

Senator O'Mahoney's friends from Wyoming have a headquarters in the Bellevue where they publicly tell visitors they are bombing him for the presidential nomination. Privately they admit they are shooting for the stars and would be glad to settle for second place.

Senator O'Mahoney himself says he isn't a candidate for the vice presidential nomination. Talked to him shortly before noon Sunday and he said, "I am not seeking the nomination."

There are several things in O'Mahoney's favor. First, he is popular in the west and respected in the east. Second he is of the Catholic faith and leaders here freely admit that an outstanding man of the Catholic faith would strengthen the ticket in such places as New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio and Illinois.

Third, O'Mahoney is a forceful speaker. And finally, he is about the only match for Earl Warren in the matter of looks.

John B. Shaw and Attorney John D. Ray of Beaver Falls are the two delegates from the 25th congressional district. The Pennsylvania delegation is headquartered in the Ritz Carlton hotel.

in 1934. At that convention he said "this convention could have been held on a post card."

So could this one. There isn't any more possibility of Truman losing the nomination than there is that the convention will nominate a Republican for vice president.

A minor boomlet for Mayor David Lawrence of Pittsburgh for the vice presidential nomination. "Wouldn't hear of it," said Lawrence. "I've got a big job being mayor of Pittsburgh and it takes all my time."

Another attempt was made to boom Senator Francis J. Myers of Philadelphia for the second spot. "Too young to be buried in the vice presidency," say his friends.

Hazarding a wild guess at noon it looks as though O'Mahoney of Wyoming or Barkley of Kentucky would be the nominee. From the standpoint of faithful service to the party and the administration Barkley would get the nod but Hallock of Indiana was in the same spot with the Republican convention but did not get the nomination.

A donkey has replaced the elephant on the marquee of the Bellevue. The donkey has electric eyes which flash on and off. This animal is not made of rubber as was the elephant. The elephant had deflation trouble.

The two issues which have the party policy makers over a barrel here are the civil rights plank and the party's position on the Taft-Hartley act. They would like to declare flat footedly for a civil rights plank but if they do the southern delegations threaten to walk out.

They would also like to declare ringingly against the Taft-Hartley act but to do so would put many Democratic congressmen in a hole. They voted for it and to over-ride the presidential veto. For the platform now to condemn the legislation in toto would make them look bad and they want to be re-elected.

Meadville Boy's Gun Kills Sister

Rifle Is Discharged Accidentally While Walking Trap Lines

Kills Five-Year-Old

MEADVILLE, July 12.—A five-year-old girl died in her mother's arms Monday after being accidentally shot by an older brother. Deputy Sheriff Andy Wade identified the victim as Claudia Marie Laird, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Laird, R. D. 8, Meadville.

The brother, George, 11, told police he and his sister were on their way to inspect a trap line. He placed the .22 caliber rifle in safety position as his sister walked in front of him.

After the death of the girl police examined the rifle and found a faulty mechanism. Wade said even the slightest jar would have fired the gun.

Special Speakers At Drake Church

Steel Production Is Near Capacity

PITTSBURGH, July 12.—(INS)—Steel production in the Pittsburgh area is being maintained at near peak capacity today despite the eight-day strike by some 65,000 United Mine Workers.

Latest figures released by the district's major producers indicates further than no real pinch in coal supplies will be felt for from at least two weeks to a month.

The five big companies in the area have announced the following production schedule for the next two to four weeks: Pittsburgh Steel, 94.4 per cent for 2 to 3 weeks; Carnegie-Illinois Steel Corp., 76.5 per cent for 3 weeks; Jones & Laughlin Steel Corp., 96 per cent for 4 weeks; Crucible Steel Corp., 100 per cent for 3 to 5 weeks, and Weirton Steel Co., 97.9 per cent for 4 weeks.

Storm Does Damage
On Monday Evening

Mt. Jackson Area Was One Of Worst Wind, Rain Storms In 20 Years

Monday evening's storm was quite severe in the Mt. Jackson road and North Beaver township area.

About 8 o'clock a long line of cars was held up on Mt. Jackson road, on account of wires and trees down on the road, and traffic was detained for some time, back along the Cleveland Mill and Powder Mill roads.

Folks along Mt. Jackson road report this was one of the worst wind and rain storms for 20 years. The wind blew the rain under some doors, coming from an unusual direction, and folks were busy mopping up water from the floors.

Electric light was off temporarily at some points, and some places all night, and candles and other primitive forms of lighting were brought into use. Linemen were busy during the night, with large searchlights on their trucks, repairing the damage.

Joe Kwolek, who is on the former Paul Morck farm, reports that a haystack, about 30 feet at the bottom, was turned over by the wind. It is also reported that the storm was hard on the wheat in that area, which was somewhat flattened, which will hinder somewhat the thrashing operation. Dale Tindall, rural letter-carrier out of Mahoningtown post office, states that the corn on his place is laying flat on the ground.

Fr. W. J. Garofalo Gets Appointment

To Be Assistant Pastor Holy Souls Church, Carnegie, Pa., Starting July 23

Rev. Fr. William J. Garofalo, newly ordained priest of Mahoningtown, received his official appointment this week from The Most Rev. Hugh C. Boyle, D.D., bishop of the Pittsburgh diocese.

Fr. Garofalo will assume his new duties on Thursday, July 23, at the Holy Souls church, Carnegie, Pa., as assistant pastor, and will aid the pastor, Rev. Fr. Ercole Domestici.

Fr. Garofalo was ordained from St. Vincent's Archabbey, Latrobe, Pa., on June 13. Sunday, June 20, was the great occasion of officiating as celebrant at his first solemn high mass in St. Lucy's church.

Since then the young priest has been offering mass until receiving his official appointment.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Garofalo of 300 West Madison avenue.

Friends Honor English Visitor

Mr. and Mrs. David Harris, of R.D. 7, Mahoningtown, entertained a group of friends and relatives, during the week end at a picnic on their place, Tuesday, June 20.

In honor of Mrs. Harry Hyde, of Birmingham, England, who has been visiting with her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Keller Cochran, of Wilmington road.

Reminiscing and picture-taking was the diversion of the afternoon. Dinner and supper was served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Harry Snyder.

Mrs. Hyde arrived in the U. S. by plane, and expects to return by plane July 15. Mrs. Harris is a native of High Wycombe, England, coming here after the close of World War 2.

Boy Badly Hurt In Fall Off Ice Truck

William Metlin, aged 8 years, son of Mrs. Delphia Metlin of 225 South Cedar street, suffered a possible fracture of the skull when he fell from an ice wagon in the ward Monday afternoon.

He was taken to the Jameson Memorial hospital for treatment and admitted at 2:45 p. m.

Weingartner Class Has Homecoming

Egworth Methodist Class Organized in 1909; Weingartner Picture Presented To Class

Members of the Weingartner Sunday school class, of Egworth Methodist church, assembled Sunday morning at 9:30 in the community room, with Mrs. Lloyd Thompson, president, bringing greetings to the members and former class members.

Mrs. Harry Marshall had charge of the program, and Russell Rhodes led in the devotions.

The class was organized in 1909, and as a tribute to George T. Weingartner, who taught the class for over 20 years, a large framed picture of Mr. Weingartner was presented by Norman E. Clark to the class, and Mrs. Lloyd Thompson accepted the gift, on behalf of the class. The picture will be hung in the class room, in the church.

Mrs. Charles Miller called the roll of past presidents, each one of 15 present, responding. Mrs. James Dunkerly read greetings from former members, now out of the city.

Rev. George R. D. Braun, pastor, gave a talk on "Homecoming". Mrs. John Loy called the roll of charter members, five being present.

J. P. Bentz, one of the elder members, was called upon, and spoke on what the class has meant to him. Mrs. Russell Rhodes, as one of the new members, said what the class means to her.

In 1929, the Berean class of former Grace Methodist church, joined this class, and Mrs. Lloyd Thompson called the roll, and seven of those members were present. Mrs. James Dunkerly read the names on the memorial list, 15 having passed away. Mrs. Marshall conducted a short memorial service in their honor.

Out of town guests were Mrs. Ben Jones, McKeesport, Mr. and Mrs. Sherman Dilley of Mercer.

Committee in charge of arrangements was Mr. and Mrs. Harry Marshall, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller, Mr. and Mrs. James Dunkerly, Mr. and Mrs. John Loy.

Antics Of Birds Draw Attention

Perhaps His Song Is 'Oh For The Life Of A . . . Cow Bird'

It takes a bird lover to notice the antics of our friends, while making nests and feeding.

Thus, Ruth Stevens of 425 Norwood avenue related to city reporter Owen Penfield Fox, the efforts that a tiny song sparrow made in feeding a young cow bird, the latter being twice the size of the song bird.

Cow birds derive their name from the fact that they seek cow fields in search of food, and here they are found in great numbers. Rarely do they settle in towns, but instead they seek the confines of woods and areas of grass and fields.

Another trait is that they lay their eggs in others birds' nests (usually yellow warblers' nest) and furthermore they never raise a brood of their own.

This particular cow bird in the Stevens' back yard had laid its eggs in the little song sparrow's nest. Apparently the little fellow had to work very hard in order to keep up with the cow bird's demand for food! Even in bird life there are oddities and unusual happenings!

Delaware River Pilot Drowned

Seek Body Of River Bay Pilot Who Sank During Swim With Pittsburgh Nurse

LEWES, Del., July 13.—(INS)—Police dragged Rehoboth Bay today for the body of Captain John Barnes, 30, a Delaware river bay pilot.

Barnes has been missing since last night after he and a Pittsburgh nurse—Irene Horgas—had gone for a swim in the bay.

Miss Horgas, a registered nurse at the Beebe Hospital at Lewes, said she saw Barnes go down for the third time but was unable to reach him.

The couple had been sailing on the bay when they decided to take a swim, Miss Horgas said.

The nurse told police Barnes apparently was taken by a cramp while swimming.

A GOOD RAT

Rats have a bad reputation. Nobody likes them. Nobody wants them around.

Rats spoil more food than we send to Europe.

Rats damage our buildings. They carry diseases for long distances.

They are more destructive than war.

They keep up their bad work all the time.

There does not seem to be a good rat any where.

We are gradually learning how to fight the rat.

Perhaps some day he will be eradicated.

Salvation Army
Sunday School To Picnic At Cascade

Sunday school picnic for the Salvation Army young people will be held Wednesday at Cascade Park, at Sholtz 4.

A picnic dinner will be served at noon, with games and contests in the afternoon. Activities of the afternoon will be in charge of Lt. Betty Fuller, newly arrived assistant to Adjutant Thelma Dundon.

Following the games there will be rides on the various park amusements, with ice cream and pop for the youngsters.

Approximately 75 youngsters are expected to attend.

This picnic is being given by the Colonels and Brigadiers, in honor of the Commissioner team, which won the membership drive which has been going on for several weeks.

New Wilmington
Man Is Injured

John Earl McKnight, 50, employee at Overlook sanitarium, New Wilmington, is in the Jameson Memorial hospital, having suffered injuries to the head and possible concussion, abrasions of the left leg and injuries to both ankles when knocked down by an auto at North Jefferson and North streets at 11:55 p. m. Monday.

The driver of the auto is unknown but police are investigating the accident.

Court House

Sentences Are Given By Court

Several Offenders Are Before County Court Monday For Various Offenses

TAXPAYERS ARE FILLING UP WORK

Sentences were handed down by President Judge W. Walter Brahm on Monday against several who had entered pleas to the charges placed against them.

Patsy Arena, Patsy Micco and Charles N. Cassentino, of Mahoning township, who had pleaded guilty to a charge of larceny, involving the theft of a John Deere Disc harrow from John Cavander, who operates the Andrew Baird farm, near Mt. Jackson, were placed on parole for a year, fined $25 and costs, and ordered to make restitution for the farm machine they stole amounting to $225. They sold the stolen machine for $40.

The boys were arrested by State Police and admitted taking the machine, which they sold to a passing junk dealer. It was never recovered.

Ira Evan Stricklenberger, of 211 Rocky avenue, New Brighton, charged with operating a motor vehicle while intoxicated, was sentenced to pay a fine of $100 and undergo imprisonment for five months. Stricklenberger, who had lost his driving privileges because of a similar offense committed in Beaver county, had procured a Florida driver's license, which he was driving under. Hence the heavier sentence than usual.

John H. Huff, of Lyndal street, and Thomas K. Pitzer of Maryland avenue, charged with driving while intoxicated were given the customary sentence of $100 and three days in jail, being released on payment of the fine.

TAXPAYERS CAUSE CONFUSION

Miss Jeannette DeCarbo, deputy county treasurer, today asked taxpayers who send their checks to the county treasurer's office by mail, to send the entire card, and not to cut off the bottom part.

It is necessary to make out a duplicate card when this is done, causing additional work in the treasurer's office.

A considerable amount of work has been done by the clerical force in the treasurer's office making out the tax cards, which are run through a special machine when payment is made. This stamps both the top and bottom parts of the card, and cuts off the bottom which the treasurer then keeps.

However, when the payer keeps the upper part and does not send it in with his remittance, the record cannot be maintained on the machine, so it is necessary to make out an entirely new card, causing additional work in the treasurer's office.

Taxpayers are assured that their receipt will be returned to them by the treasurer by return mail.

NEAL ON FISHING TRIP
County Treasurer Don I. Neal is spending the current week at Ferry Sound, Canada, attempting to lure a few prize finny beauties into his boat. Courthouse friends are licking their chops in anticipation of a nice fish dinner, as Treasurer Neal has the reputation for bringing them back alive, but some others are keeping their fingers crossed.

VOCATIONAL DIRECTOR'S WIFE IN CRASH

Mrs. James C. Fink and sons James and Bobby, had a narrow escape from injury, Saturday evening, when the Fink car was wrecked on the Harlansburg road near their home. In some manner the steering apparatus buckled, throwing the car against a guard rail. Mrs. Fink and Bobby suffered slight injuries, but the car was badly damaged. Mr. Fink is vocational agriculture director for Lawrence, Beaver and Butler counties, with offices in the Court House Annex.

BRING BACK PRISONERS

State Police and Deputy Sheriff Tommy O'Brien were in Moundsville, W. Va., Monday getting three prisoners who were reported involved in the theft of scrap from the Precision Foundry Co. at East New Castle last week. Three of the gang were arrested by Sheriff Frank L. Coen and state police but three made their escape and were apprehended in West Virginia by the state police there. Those returned were James and Tom Graham and Charles Rickman, of Moundsville. All will be charged with larceny, and probably will be sentenced in the near future.

Mummers Parade In Philadelphia, Four Are Injured

Four Hospitalized As Police And Paraders Clash Over Incident
During Event

PHILADELPHIA, July 13 (INS)—The Mummers Association staged one of its spectacular fancy dress parades last night for the benefit of Philadelphia's Convention visitors, but the high-light was an unscheduled free-for-all.

When the brawl was over, four men were hospitalized and four were arrested.

The trouble started when park guards, under orders attempted to divert the comic and fancy dress clubs to a side lane of the Benjamin Franklin Parkway, granting the center lane to the string bands.

Paraders-Police Clash
Some of the Mummers protested, park guards said, and were aided by the mob which closed in on the guards. Three guards and a marcher were hurt, and one of the officers was pronounced in only "fair" condition as the result of a kick in the abdomen.

The park policemen finally drew their guns to disperse the crowd. Another rift had broken out in the Mummers Association, but was settled before the parade. The Ferkko String Band, which had been suspended from the group for participation in a capacity charity event, won court approval to march, but withdrew from the parade in the interests of "harmony."

Pennsy To Increase Rail Fares July 19

HARRISBURG, July 13 (INS)—Pennsylvania's railroads have the Public Utility Commission's authority to boost fares July 19 in line with Interstate Commerce Commission orders.

The increases will amount to 20 per cent or three cents a mile in coaches and 14.3 per cent or four cents a mile in Pullmans for one-way tickets.

Similar rises will be allowed for round-trip tickets with the exception of fares for distances over 225 miles, where decreases were ordered. The cut amounts to less than a cent a mile.

Chief lines covered by the order are the Pennsylvania, Baltimore and Ohio, New York Central and Reading.

The PUC authorized the railroads to hike the rates for excess baggage in proportion to the increases for Pullman fares.

Huge Westinghouse Lester Plant Down

LESTER, Pa., July 13 (INS)—The huge Westinghouse Electric Co. plant in Lester lay idle today as more than 6,000 employees protested the "leaves of absence" of two workers who were branded "poor security risks" by the Navy. Some 4,500 daytime employees staged an hour-long sit-down strike late yesterday and then left the plant when their shift ended. Between 1,500 and 1,600 employees of the next two shifts also refused to work when they learned that the day shift had voted for a walk-out.

WAMPUM

HAIRHOGGER REUNION

The tenth annual reunion of the Hairhogger family was held Saturday at the Athletic field. Seventy-seven were in attendance.

During the afternoon a soft ball game was played by the men. A hog calling contest, various races and a lolly-pop hunt were the diversions. Prizes were awarded to the winners and awards were also presented to David Hairhogger, oldest member present, to Mr. and Mrs. Edward Downey, most recently married couple and to the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mars, youngest member in attendance. The sports program was in charge of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Downey and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Hairhogger, Jr.

Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: David Hairhogger, president; Harry Hairhogger, vice president; Mrs. Otto Heberling, secretary, and Mrs. Viola Wehr, treasurer.

At noon a delicious picnic dinner was served. Arrangements were in charge of Mrs. Wilma Hairhogger and Mrs. Helen Mars.

Mrs. Lorene Meyers of Miami, Fla., and Mrs. Lovetta Heberling, and son, Ward of Lakewood, Fla., were among those present.

WAMPUM NOTES

Around Hollywood

By RUTH BRIGMAN
(International News Service Staff Correspondent)

HOLLYWOOD, July 13.—(INS)—What Mister James Mason needs most is a good press agent.

The British actor and his wife, Pamela, have continued their antagonism toward the American press, even when the latter was trying to work in the best interests of the Masons.

The two made so many disparaging remarks about Hollywood and its inhabitants (which they are also inhabiting now with plans to make two movies) that phony "Prince" Mike Romanoff wrote an uncomplimentary ode to them on the menu of his swank Beverly Hills restaurant.

Not Wanted

Mike used a lot of flowery words, but the gist of it was—there would never be a table for the Masons in his restaurant.

And a Hollywood columnist gave the English actor and his author-ess-actress wife a few brief words, to the effect that famed host Al-water Kent would not invite them to one of his fabulous parties.

To be included out of a Kent party in Hollywood is like standing on the outside of the pearly gates and looking in.

But there remained one naive Hollywood writer who thought poor Mister Mason had been greatly maligned—and should be given another chance.

No Cooperation

She wanted to do an interview with him about his American movie plans, after a New York judge freed him of a contract that he didn't like and left him available for other movie outlets.

His agent was located. He refused to give Mason's phone number, saying he was sick and could not be disturbed.

Oked. But he even refused to ask him a couple of questions himself for publication—and promised no time in the future when Mason could be contacted!

When told that the interview might help the British actor, who had received such unfavorable publicity, the agent replied:

"Don't you think Mr. Mason's publicity is his own affair?"

Touche, Mister Agent... but Mister Mason sure could use one good press agent.

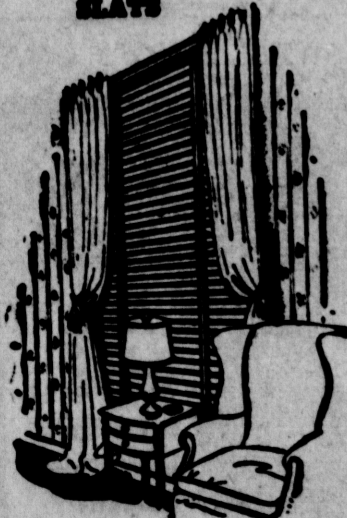

Clark Knows Now

And why not try Clark Gable's? That guy manages to keep his name on front pages more than any Hollywoodite we know, outside of killing somebody or himself.

STRUTHERS MAN

A beautifully decorated altar in the St. Peter and Paul church, Struthers, O., Miss Mary Kobelka, daughter of Andrew Kobelka, 1800 Pennsylvania avenue, became the bride of Paul Demosko, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Demosko, Sr., of Struthers, O., at 9:30 o'clock on Sunday afternoon.

Fr. John Bohrer, Pittsburgh, officiated at the double ring ceremony, with Fr. Michael of Struthers assisting.

Miss Kobelka, given in marriage by her brother, Alex Prosser, wore a satin and marquisette gown, lace-trimmed, with a court train. A veil, trimmed in lace to match her gown, fell from a seed pearl crown to fingertip length. Her only jewelry was a pair of pearls, and her bouquet was of white calla lilies.

As maid of honor, Miss Josephine Zalk, New Castle, wore a gown of aqua marquisette, and bridesmaid, Miss Stella Horsey, also of New Castle, wore a similar gown of pink marquisette. Both carried arm bouquets of roses.

Michael Dutko served as best man and Paul Hrivnak served as usher. Both are from Struthers.

Following the wedding a reception was held for 50 guests in a tea room in Youngstown.

Mr. and Mrs. Demosko, Jr., departed on a wedding trip to Connecticut Lake for a week. The couple will reside temporarily in New Castle.

Mr. Demosko, Jr., a veteran of World War II, is owner and proprietor of the Wilson Radio shop in Struthers.

YERKOVICH-GRUTSCH

VOWS EXCHANGED

A lovely summer wedding was solemnized in St. Michael's church, when Miss Florence Marie Yerkevich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Yerkevich, of 1515 Moravia street, became the bride of James Grutsch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Grutsch, of Gary, Ind. Rev. William M. Pisarcik officiated at the double ring ceremony on July 8.

The bride wore a gown of white marquisette, trimmed in lace, a lace-trimmed fingertip veil, and carried a bouquet of white gardenias, roses and stephanotis.

As maid of honor, Miss Eleanor Yerkevich wore a blue marquisette gown and a blue headpiece. She carried a bouquet of white stephanotis and pink roses.

A wedding breakfast followed the ceremony, and later a dinner was served to the immediate families and close friends at The Castleton. In the evening there was a reception at the bride's parents home.

Mr. and Mrs. James Grutsch left on a trip to Lake Michigan and other points of interest. They will reside in Gary, Ind.

Mrs. Grutsch was a government employee in Washington, D. C. Mr. Grutsch is a chemist in Gary, Ind.

ENJOYS PICNIC

Members of the S. E. B. Class of the First Methodist church and their husbands were entertained in the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. K. Thacker, of Evon Valley. A picnic supper was enjoyed, after which the group spent a delightful evening going through the beautiful old home that the Thacker's have just recently purchased. The home is 130 years old, and they have carried most of their furnishings out in beautiful old antiques.

Special guests for the evening were Rev. and Mrs. James A. Gaiser, Dr. Norris A. White, Mr. and Mrs. Roy B. W. Owings, of South Carolina, Mrs. W. C. Meacham and Mrs. Paul Reynolds of Ellwood City and Mrs. John Leonard, of Boston, Mass.

The committee in charge of the evening's arrangements consisted of Mrs. W. L. Beal, Mrs. H. C. Campbell, Mrs. J. W. Anderson, and Mrs. J. H. Eimore.

Swogger Reunion

Third annual reunion of the Joseph N. Swogger family of New Gallie, was Sunday at the Wampum Park.

Supper was served at 6 o'clock with places set for 34 relatives and guests.

Group pictures were taken of the four generations. Joseph N. Swogger was the oldest person present and the youngest, a great-grandchild, Brian Stetler.

Officers elected were as follows: President, Joseph N. Swogger; Vice President, Joseph W. Swogger; Secretary, Mrs. Eugene H. Arnold; Treasurer, Mrs. Burdell Stetler.

Plans for the next reunion will be announced at a later date.

Tempus Fugit

Members of the Tempus Fugit club were entertained in the home of Mrs. Ray Clapp, 733 Lathrop street, on a recent evening. The evening was spent playing 500 with prizes going to Mrs. Andrew Navarra, Mrs. John Corio and the galloper to Mrs. Mike Fazzone.

Special guests were Mrs. Thomas Ross and Mrs. Carl Chialfallo. A birthday gift was presented to Mrs. Don Mooney by her rector sister.

A delicious lunch was served by the hostess, added by Mrs. Carl Chialfallo and Mrs. John Corio.

The group will have a tureen supper at Cascade park Thursday evening.

Palmer-Keller

Miss Helen Palmer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William F. Palmer, Harbor street, became the bride of George Miller, son of Mrs. G. Miller, 411 Lyndal street, on the afternoon of June 28, in the home of Rev. O. J. Warnath, Edgewood avenue.

The bride wore a white street

length dress with white accessories and an orchid corsage. She was attended by her sister, Mary, and John Miller, brother of the groom acted as best man.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the home of the bride's parents for the immediate families. They left on a short wedding trip and are now at home in their newly furnished apartment at 387 East Washington street.

To Have Picnic

Ladies Association of the First U. P. church will have a picnic on Thursday, July 15, at the home of Mrs. John Ingman.

Milk Hearing Date Set For August 3

Book Increased Milk Price In 13-County Pittsburgh Market-ing Area

HARRISBURG, July 13.—(INS)—The State Milk Control Commission today scheduled a public hearing at Pittsburgh August 3 on milk prices in the 13-county Pittsburgh marketing area.

The hearing was considered a forerunner to a price increase next fall.

Dairymen throughout the state have indicated the need for a general one-cent a quart increase because of increased feed, labor and production costs.

13-County Area
The MCC announced the Pittsburgh hearing was called at the request of the Dairymen's Co-operative Sales Association and the Greater Pittsburgh Milk Dealers Association. It will be held at 10 a. m. in the Roosevelt Hotel.

Milk prices in the area currently are fixed at 20 1/2 cents a quart.

The area covers Allegheny, Armstrong, Beaver, Butler, Clarion, Fayette, Greene, Lawrence, Mercer, Venango, Washington and Westmoreland counties and parts of Crawford county.

Rainbow Vets In Convention At Pittsburgh

PITTSBURGH, July 13.—(INS)—Some 1,000 veterans of the famed 42nd Rainbow Division renewed acquaintances at the national association's 30th annual reunion in Pittsburgh.

Former members of the Rainbow Division attending the reunion include Col. J. Monroe Johnson, head of the Office of Defense Transportation in Washington; Col. R. Garrett, chief counsel for Trans-World Airlines, Kansas City, Mo., and Col. Cooper Winn, superintendent of the Robert E. Lee Memorial Foundation, Stafford, Va.

The division was formed in 1917 of units from 16 states and the District of Columbia. It was open to men from every state in World War II and flew 49 flags, one for each state and the District of Columbia.

The three-day reunion will be climaxed Wednesday night with a "Champagne Hour" banquet honoring the division's departed members.

Taft Sees Six New Republican Faces In Senate

WASHINGTON, July 13.—(INS)—Sen. Taft (R) Ohio, predicted Monday that the Republicans will win senate seats in six doubtful states to insure full GOP control of congress in the next session.

The senate GOP policy leader told a news conference that he sees no danger of the Democrats winning a majority in the upper chamber in the November elections.

He predicted Republican candidates will win seats held by Democrats in New Mexico, Montana, Rhode Island, Colorado and retain seats in Oklahoma and Kentucky.

Taft remarked: "I don't think there's any danger of the Republicans losing the senate. If a Republican president is elected, as Mr. Dewey undoubtedly will be, the party will carry all the doubtful states."

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS LAND

HAVING returned a few days ago from a fishing trip to Lakes Chemung, Pigeon and Little Buckhorn, Here & There found the fish not hitting. At Big Buckhorn and Rice lakes, conditions were reported different. Gas and oil sold for 40 cents per gallon, and quart, respectively. However, the Canadian gallon contains one more quart than the U.S. gallon. Because of a 20 cents tax, cigarettes, sold for 35 cents a package. At Chemung, the guide Here & There had for one day, charged nine dollars, eight a. m. until six p. m. The largest bass caught by Here & There weighed three pounds. Some small-mouth were taken and if perch were desired, they were abundant. Only bass and "muskies" abound in Chemung. There are no Northern pike in the lake. Pickerel were stocked there several years. Few have been taken. First ten days at point pickerel but wasn't netted by the guide. . . First ten days at Beverly lake, found rain falling every day, according to reports from Delta. . . A letter from New York to a friend here, reports that efforts are being made to have Joe Louis change his mind about retiring and fight again in September.

15th All-Star Classic At St. Louis

Hank, Ralph Map Homer Strategy

PITTSBURGH, July 13.—Cincinnati's Hank Sauer and Pittsburgh's Ralph Kiner are resting between home runs today and planning their strategy to outslug each other in the last half of the National League season.

Sauer, a 29-year-old rookie of sorts, has a reputation to make, and Kiner, 26-year-old veteran of three years, has one to maintain.

Currently Sauer has the smallest possible edge on Kiner. Hank has blasted 24 circuit smashes to 23 for Ralph. Hank has 77 more games in which to expand his total, and Ralph has 80 chances left.

Both of the fence-busters go in spurts. Kiner, for example, has hit 16 of his homers on Sundays, with three in a row in the second game of a July 5 double-header his maximum one-day output for the year.

And his all-time high occurred last Sept. 10th, 11th and 12th when he hit eight out of the park in four games. Four of them were in the Sept. 11 twin bill with the Boston Braves.

Three Days Ahead

When play resumes Thursday, Kiner will be three playing days ahead of his 1947 log. His 24th circuit last season was on July 17, and his 25th six days later.

One record is just around the corner for the Alhambra, Cal., resident. Three home runs from now he will become the first player ever to hit 100 of the crowd-pleasers in his first three years in the majors.

A slugger named Babe Ruth, of course, was a pitcher in his early days. When he switched to the outfield, the Babe lost 143 balls in his first three seasons. Kiner will have to total 66 for the season to equal that—a rather improbable feat.

Sauer had two previous trials with the Reds without making the grade. From his performance this year, it seems safe to say that he'll be around left field in Cincinnati for a while.

The Bellvue, Pa., native was the International League's most-valuable player in 1947. He missed the All-Star game, his first full-season in the majors, placing behind the Cardinal's fabulous Stan Musial and Kiner. Both Sauer and Kiner, of course, are aiming at Ruth's record of 60, but the Bambino is safe right now by 35 or more cases of wheaties.

American Leaguers Crippled For Game

Williams, DiMaggio, Kell, Newhouse Sidelined by Injuries But Junior Circuit Favored; Harris May Inject Joe Page As Starter Against National Potent Power.

(International News Service Sports Writer)

ST. LOUIS, July 13.—The injury-riddled American League All-Stars were favored to beat the Nationals today in the 15th renewal of baseball's all-star game at Sportsman's Park, St. Louis.

Two right-handed pitchers—Brooklyn's Ralph Branca for the visiting senior circuit team and New York's Vic Raschi for the host Americans—were the likely choices to start on the mound.

Black thunderhead clouds forecast the outside possibility that rain would force postponement of the contest until tomorrow.

Harris said that eventually, the opening pitch was set for 1:30 p. m. (CDT) today with 35,000 fans on hand to see how, if at all, a set of stand-ins could fill the shoes of the missing Ted Williams, Joe DiMaggio, George Kell and Hal Newhouse.

This peerless American league foursome—Boston's Williams in left, New York's DiMaggio in center, Detroit's Kell at third and Newhouse, intended starting hurler—sat on the sidelines with injuries as the rival Nationals, humiliated in 10 of the 14 All-Star games so far, prepared to go to the plate.

The betting said the senior circuit players were in for their 11th humiliation despite the crippled status of their foes and their own creative baseball artistry, a la Stan Musial, John Mine, Andy Pafko, Enos Slaughter and friends.

Odds 12-30

The odds were 12 to 30 if you liked the Americans. Before Bucky Harris, the sad-faced American on in DiMaggio's post in center and Cleveland's Ken Keltner to replace Kell at third.

There was the possibility that both DiMaggio and Kell might find enough health to perform a few late-game chores, but their removal from the starting lineup positions they won through votes of the fans was tip-off enough as to their conditions.

On the National league side of the field, the thoughtful Lee Durocher was performing a few cut-ups, too.

Can Switch Pitchers

He also retained the privilege of switching starting pitchers at the eleventh hour, expressing a liking for gaunt Evel Blackwell as a "possible" behind his own Branca.

The Nationals' pilot had one health problem, too—that of Red Schoendienst of St. Louis at second. Bill Rigney of New York was held in ready reserve to replace the Cardinal player whose throwing shoulder has been bad of late.

The source of the big American league ailments was a torn rib cartilage for Williams, swollen knee for DiMaggio, bad ankle for Kell and sore shoulder for Newhouse.

Only one rookie was in the lineup for the game—Rickey Ashburn of the Philadelphia Phillies, who was leading off the National league batting order and patrolling the center-field area.

league manager, shuffled the four aces out of the deck yesterday, it was 11 to 30.

Squarely impaled on the horns of this unhappy dilemma, Harris was playing matters with all the managerial cunning for which he is noted.

He reserved the right, for example, to inject a relief pitcher, Yankee Joe Page, as a last-minute starting preference because Page was the Americans' only left-hander with Newhouse out—and southpaw "figured" against the batting prowess of Musial, Slaughter and Mize.

Harris already had juggled his starting lineup to the point where the redoubtable Pat Mullen of Detroit was leading off, followed by New Yorker Tom Henrich, by trade a right fielder but playing left in place of Williams. Detroit's Walter Evers was assigned to carry

WAMPUM WINNING WITHOUT SERVICES OF EMIL FONTANA

Even with their star outfielder, Emil "Muscles" Fontana riding the bench with a leg injury, the Wampum Victory Club continues to burn up the County Loop with 27 wins and three losses.

Fontana, who incurred his injury making a shoe-string catch of a line drive, will be lost to the league-leaders for a month. Business manager "Peanuts" DeMark announced today that the team will play the Western Penn. League at Pittsburgh, July 24, and is looking for a worthy opponent for July 25—an open date.

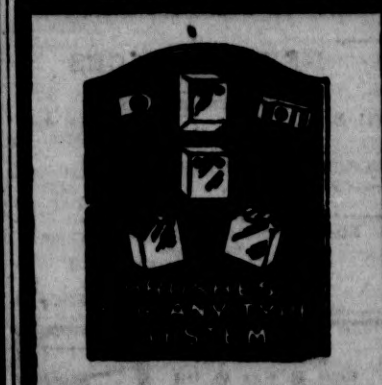

Penn State, a perennial power on the soccer field, will undertake a nine-game schedule in 1948.

Senator Taft Strong In South

Might Have Carried Several Southern States As G.O.P. Nominee

OTHER NEWS OF NATIONAL AFFAIRS

(Special To Control Press)
WASHINGTON, July 13 — The Republican Dewey-Warren ticket is viewed by political experts as strengthening the GOP for November in every section of the nation but the South.

Reason for the South's coolness toward the Dewey-Warren combination is the strong civil rights records of both candidates plus the strong anti-Jim Crow plank in the GOP platform.

Had Ohio's Senator Robert A. Taft been the Republican nominee, several Southern states — notably Virginia, North Carolina and Florida — could have been given a better-than-ever chance to buck tradition and go Republican next fall.

Virginia may do so yet. Virginia went Republican for Herbert Hoover in 1928. However, there is slight hope for North Carolina or Florida, though these states, too, went GOP in 1928.

Most experts predict that the Southern states, if they carry out their threat to rebel against any ticket headed by President Truman, will vote for "favorite son" candidates in the electoral college.

TITO GOT TOO TOUGH

Good diplomatic information is that Moscow went after Tito of Yugoslavia not because he strayed from the Communist line but because he was losing it the wrong way.

Best sources declare that Russian world conquest tactics center on a political war — not a military war. Tito apparently was rattling the other too loud.

The Politburo does not want to quarrel with United States defenses. It wants to barge from within, quietly, and take over countries in surprise fashion.

Tito, a uniform-loving, belerent braggadocio, has made the United States "mad" too often for the rulers of Russia. Moscow wants its puppets to react its way when it pulls the strings.

DOLLAR SHORTAGE

The shortage of dollars among the members of the British Commonwealth is seriously affecting diplomatic activities in Washington.

Britain, of course, is trying to sell everything possible in the United States for dollars. As a result, Scotch is one of the rarest commodities among British diplomats.

They might choose American rye or bourbon as a second choice, but because of arrangements with Canada, must use Canadian whiskies.

In addition, British diplomats recently were informed they must take part of their pay in pounds. That means they must buy British goods or let the money accumulate in London.

The Australians recently dropped their public relations expert because they lacked dollars and an American working for New Zealand in the same capacity here was dismissed.

JUST A RECESS

Although the Mundt-Nixon anti-Communist bill did not quite squeeze through the 80th Congress, opponents of Red-control legislation are advised that their battle is by no means won.

Staring them in the face is the strong Republican platform stand in favor of such new legislation as necessary to oppose "the treasonable activities of Communists."

Senator Alexander Wiley (R), Wisconsin, chairman of the Senate Judiciary committee, and Senator Homer Ferguson (R), Michigan, the Senate's ace investigator, both promise that an anti-Communist law will be high on their program for the next Congressional session.
